VOL. 28 — BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., NOVEMBER 1949 — NO. 1

Men of Presbytery Met At Barium

The Men of Concord Presbytery met in their annual fall meeting at Barium Springs on the evening of October twenty-fifth. This was the largest group ever to assemble for this meeting of the men of our Presbytery. There were in round numbers five hundred and fifty present. Mr. Johnston says they ate all of the barbecue and there was enough prepared for seven hundred people; this is an indication of how well they thought of the fine food prepared by the host group at the orphanage. The large dining room at Barium was completely filled — A thrilling sight when one considers the potentiality of such a group all working for the advancement of the Kingdom in Concord Presbytery.

In addition to the fine food, Barium Springs provided some splendid music by the Glee Club of the Orphanage. Mr. James Sloan, of the Thyatira Church, President of the Men of the Presbytery, presided during the meeting and deserves a great deal of the credit for the large number in attendance.

The invocation was led by Mr. W. C. Houck, and Elder in the First Church, Salisbury. The Devotional was led by Rev. Milton B. Faust, Pastor of the Franklin Church. The principal speaker was Dr. Edward D. Grant, Executive Secretary of the Board of Christian Education of our Church, Richmond, Va. Dr. Grant brought a most challenging message based largely on the Re-Study Report, the condensation of which we hope you have read in the book "Lift Up Your Eyes". Dr. Grant emphasized the importance of the findings of the Re-Study group and the importance of all Church

ANNIE LOUISE COTTAGE

Hi friends,

A good many things have taken place during the later part of October and the early part of November.

We're just raring to tell you the outcome of Halloween night.

We had lots and lots of "visitors" to come and scare us to death. A few of the younger ones were really scared too! Big old boys would come toward us all "blacked up" and in ragged clothes. Many of them had on false faces, which were really horriable looking! To top the night off, one of our big sisters told us a ghost story. It was awful too. The worse part of all though was when she kept on telling us it was true! A few of us cried and shivered on our way to bed. All in all it was an eventful Halloween.

We've been raking leaves and really making the money too. We have found that this is a good way to spend our spare time, and also a good way to make some extra money. The money usually goes for

Regular Income Less Than In 1948

Mecklenburg and Wilmington show increases.

Possibly because of some slight recession in business, or because of some reductions in Barium's percentage in the regular budget, our income from the churches for the first seven months of the church year is $2,788.52 less than for the same period last year. However two of the Presbyteries, Mecklenburg and Wilmington show an increase of $322.36 and $381.41 respectively. The tabulation is as follows:

April — October

Presbytery	1948	1949
Albemarle	$1,580.86	$1,574.78	—$ 608.00
Concord	6,191.37	5,962.03	— 229.34
Fayetteville	5,257.95	4,518.41	— 739.54
Granville	1,325.63	961.83	— 363.80

Progress Made Toward New Church.- Building Fund Now $90,000.00

Progress is being made toward the building of the first unit of our church.

The amount in bonds and cash for the church having reached about $90,000.00 the Building and Grounds Committee felt it time to begin definite planning to erect the new church. So an architect was elected. The firm of Thomas and Waggoner who are now the architects for the new church at Davidson College was selected.

Mr. Thomas has visited the campus and has studied the proposed site for the church. He has also sent down several preliminary studies to be considered by the Building and Grounds Committee and the Committee of the Church. The plans contemplate an expendeture of $125,000.00 for each unit of the church.

All gifts that are designated for the new church and all undesignated memorials go into this fund. We receive as memorials for the church about $1,000.00 per month. There are some friends and supporters who prefer for their memorial gifts to go to the operation of the Home and the care of the Children. Such preferences we are glad to carry out.

Home-coming Days

Without meaning to, I have sat in on four Home-coming Days in succession. You, of course, know the prime objectives of Home-coming Days. The idea is to attract all the alumni back for a feast. There are a lot of good things to eat and a good football team to beat - all of that is on the program. It would not do to have a weak sister as an opponent, so every school and college usually picks out a worthy opponent so that their victory will be a cause for celebration.

Well, at Barium Springs' Home-coming on October 14th it worked out just that way. There was plenty to eat and a most hilarious group of oldtimers assembled at Barium. The opposing team was Albemarle and Barium won its victory, so that was the perfect Home-coming Day.

The following Saturday it was Home-Coming at Davidson - plenty to eat, plenty to see, and a grand game with Davidson having a mighty good chance to win a victory, but it did not turn out that way - - the Richmond team just refused to cooperate and wound up by beating Davidson rather badly. That was all that kept that from being a perfect day.

The following Saturday it was at Chapel Hill. The Monogram Cluo at Carolina invited 35 of our students to come down and see the Tennessee-Carolina game, so we with some 40,000 other folks assembled at Kenan Stadium for the last event of the Home-Coming Day. Everything else had gone off in fine style. There had been so much food prepared that they say that chickens, turkeys and pigs within a radius of fifty miles were so scarce that they had to be protected by game laws for some time after that Home-Coming Day. But in the football game everything exploded in Carolina's face. We don't know yet whether Carolina has the superior team. The Charlie Justice team was on the field for such a little time that they hardly had a chance to warm up. The defensive team was on the field practically all the time, and they did not do so well. Tennessee very rudely slapped Carolina down by an unbelievable score.

The following week Mrs. Johnston and I journeyed to Clemson and participated in another Home-Coming Day. There is a whole lot more to this than can be told in a paragraph. First, as to why. Well, a number of years ago a little widow came to Barium Springs with two little boys. She was not very strong, but she was determined to take the matron training course and to make a living for her two sons. Riding on courage alone, she made the grade. For a time she was a matron at Barium and then taught in our school. Later on in life she married a Clemson professor, Mr. A. G. Holmes, and they live at Clemson and lead a most active life. When the time came for Mr. Holmes' retirement, they built them a lovely home near enough in to the center of things to still be part of the Clemson community. This couple invited Mrs. Johnston and myself to spend the week-end of November 5th with them. This invitation came early in the summer, so it necessitated drawing a red ring around that date so that nothing could interfere with it. So on Saturday morning, November 5th, we two started out for Clemson. We went through Lincolnton, Shelby, and Gaffney and it seemed that the trees had put on their prettiest clothes in celebration of this event, The sun was just bright enough to bring out all of their beauty without any glare.

We arrived at Clemson about 11 o'clock, all mellowed up by the

New Comers at Barium Springs

Geraldine and Peggy Hinnant

The picture at which you are looking is a sample of the new children who have come in during recent months. They came from Johnston County. Geraldine is almost nine years old and Peggy is five. There is nothing special about them except that they are just nice, lovable little girls. They came to Barium just as the Fall term of school was beginning. They are not the newest comers. There is Shelby Smith, ten-year old boy from Kinston; Melvin Sanders, seven years old, from Charlotte; Nancy Joyner, six years old, and Larry Joyner, three years old, from Charlotte; Katherine Ferrell, twelve years old, John Calvin Ferrell, eleven years old, and Nancy Ferrell, ten years old, from Charlotte; Nelson Anderson, ten years old, Betty Ruth Anderson, eight years old, and Jack Anderson, four years old, from Mt. Olive; Judith Bolton, eight years old, John Bolton, six years old, and Mary Jane Bolton, five years old, from Gastonia. And others are due to arrive between now and Christmas. Maybe we can get them all together for a group picture. If not, we will display a sample or two as we go along.

Mr. McClure to Assume Duties On January 15th

The new Superintendent of Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Rev. Albert B. McClure, will assume his duties on January 15, 1950. Our last Messenger went to press a few minutes after Mr. McClure accepted the position, so at that time it had not been announced when he would come.

The Windup of the Football Season

Barium's final game was played Friday, November, 18th. The weather was cold but dry. A fine crowd came out to see it, and while the crowd shivered the teams did some outstanding playing. The game ended in a scoreless tie, but you would not believe it until the final whistle. Barium started early in the game and drove down to the ten-yard line and fumbled. Later on an intercepted pass placed the ball again on the fifteen-yard line. Barium again failed to make good on that chance. Then Statesville threatened. A blocked punt and a couple of first downs and Statesville had the ball first and goal to go on Barium's two-yard line. On the first play Statesville fumbled and Barium recovered in the end zone - a touchback. One time Hillard returning a punt got by every man but one, and he had Hillard by the sleeve of his jersey. They have torn up several jerseys for Hillard this year and the one he had on was new (more's the pity) and it would not tear - - this delayed Hillard until the roof fell on him - - all the other players of the Statesville team arrived in time to pull him down. All of these things made for a very exciting game. The complete scores for all Barium teams are put down below. We wish we had space and time to tell of the doings of the other teams. The B team played its final game on Saturday, November 19th, defeating a team from the Junior Optimists of Charlotte. The score was 36-0, but don't think from that that it was not a good game to watch. Barium started out with their B Team boys and gradually substituted down to where there were a good many 110 pound boys playing.

On Monday, the 14th, the 110 pound team played its final game, defeating a Mooresville team 18-14. The 85-pound team did not play such a big schedule, but they are coming along, and they will be the 100-pound team next year.

The B team will help to strengthen the varsity next year. Only three senior boys will be lost, and one other player who has tarried too long in the high school. You have to finish in four years to play your football in the South Piedmont and Western Conference.

The varsity scores were:

Barium 12, Thomasville 0.
Barium 6, Children's Home 26.
Barium 27, Mooresville 0.
Barium 40, Spencer 6.
Barium 20, Albemarle 12.
Barium 6, Lexington 14.
Barium 6, Davidson B 19.
Barium 0, Salisbury32.
Barium 0, Statesville 0.

We will not attempt to separate the scores of the 125 and the B teams, because they were practically the same team:

Barium 27, Conover 0.
Barium 26, Mount Airy 0.
Barium 27, O'Donoghue School 6.
Barium 27, Charlotte Day School 0.
Barium 39, Statesville 13.
Barium 31, Newton-Conover 6.
Barium 0, Mount Airy 20.
Barium 36, Charlotte Junior Optimists 0.

(FORM OF BEQUEST)

"I give and bequeath to the Regents of the Orphans' Home of the Presbyterian Synod of North Carolina, Incorporated under the laws of the state of North Carolina, (here name the bequest).

From North Carolina Presbyterian of 1892

The masons began laying bricks on Thursday and the walls of the Synod's cottage are rising. Five masons at work. The foundation for the "Annie Louise Cottage" has been dug, and brick laying on it will begin Monday, I suppose. The force of masons is to be increased. For the past two weeks the brick making has been much hindered by the rainy weather. The bricks already burned are excellent.

Tuesday the 21st has been named as the day for the laying of the corner-stones. The address will be made by Dr. W. S. Currell of Davidson College, and we can safely promise all who may attend something admirable. The hour for the address will be 2:30 p. m. giving friends from Charlotte and beyond an opportunity of reaching Barium Springs by the 12.30 train, and of returning by the 4:30 train, allowing four hours on the ground of the Home. As it is only half a mile to the mineral springs, a delightful place for picnicing, all may spend a happy hour before the speaking begins if they bring heavy baskets with them. The public and especially all friends of the Home are invited.

Yours truly
R. W. Boyd

THE ORPHANS' HOME CORNER STONE TO BE LAID

The corner-stone of the two cottages of the Orphans' Home at Barium Springs are to be laid on Tuesday, June 21st, at 2:30 P. M. Prof. Curell of Davidson College will deliver the address upon the occasion, and there will be songs and recitations by the orphans. Visitors are expected to bring baskets of eatables, and have an extempore picnic. The train from Charlotte will reach Barium Springs about noon, and leave at 4:30 P. M. thus making it very convenient of access from that direction. Brick and lumber are on the ground, the foundations are being laid and the work is going rapidly on. It will be pleasant for the friends of the home to meet together for a few hours, and see what the Lord has enabled us to do. It is confidently expected that both cottages will be ready for inspection at the coming meeting of Synod. Friends will please hurry in the funds necessary to pay for the completed buildings.

THE THANKSGIVING SPIRIT

Kathleen Monroe

Thanksgiving is a day on which we should all think of the things that God has given us. It should mean something special to us here at Barium for we have so very much for which to be thankful. People have always been generous to us. It is only through the generosity of people and God's help that we have such a wonderful home here at Barium.

I especially like the time of year when we celebrate thanksgiving. It reminds me of Millay's poem-

"Lord, I do fear, thou'st made the World too beautiful this year."

When the Pilgrims first came to America in October, 1621, a barren land faced them. A land, which would probably seem hopeless to us today, held many prospects and promises for the future. Here in this land they could worship God without fear. This country, started by these Pilgrims working constantly to make a home in a new world, is now the greatest country on the globe. They were thankful for their blessings. Have you ever stopped to think how much more we have than those people had? Indeed! Haven't we things to be thankful for!

When I was a child, Thanksgiving had a very different meaning to me from what it has today. I always liked for Thanksgiving to come because it meant a holiday from an afternoon at school. We always went to church on Thanksgiving morning and to a football game in the afternoon. Then at night when I went to bed, I would thank God that we had a day like Thanksgiving when there were so many things to do.

As I grew older I began to wonder where all these things came from - things that we took so much for granted. The food, the clothing, the shelter were all being provided by someone. It was then that I found out they came from other people who were doing without so that we might have the proper training and care. Again I had something to add to my Thanksgiving prayer - I could thank God for taking care of us through His people.

Still later, I learned about the Pilgrims and the first Thanksgiving, and how God has helped us in making America, the beautiful. I also had this to add to my prayer of Thanksgiving- This country our country, is the freest country in the world.

Thanksgiving means much more to me today as a senior in high school with a future before me. One who has never been in an orphanage high school will not understand what I mean when I say that I have my education to be thankful for. Perhaps it sounds odd, since most people take their high school and college education as a matter of course, but as Thanksgiving comes again, I thank God for giving me such a wonderful opportunity to "increase in wisdom."

Everyday to us should be Thanksgiving, but we should be especially thankful on Thanksgiving day, since it is a day set aside by our forefathers as a day on which to thank God for His goodness. Indeed we should think of the words of this beautiful hymn as we sing:

"God, our maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied
Come to God's own temple, come
Praise the Song of Harvest Home."

We should all think Thanksgiving as more than turkey, cranberries, and mince pie. Thanksgiving is an attitude. Thanksgiving and appreciation should not be feelings that come once a year. It must be a part of our everyday living, and should begin in the home. Jan Struthers has said, "Home is where you hang your heart", and real thanksgiving starts in the heart. The only way we can show our appreciation to Him is to share that goodness with others.

Thanksgiving starts in the mind, it flows from the heart in appreciation and love for others, it reveals itself in deeds of kindness and unselfishness, and reaches its climax in praise and thankfulness to the Giver of every good and perfect gift- God.

On Thanksgiving, too, we should give of what we have to people less fortunate than we. Sometimes we are inclined to believe that since we are orphans, people should always be doing things for us, but it is my opinion that we are really more fortunate than a great many people to whom we should give just as people give to us. We can probably best put our money to the most worthy cause by giving to the church. A good example of this, I think, is at Christmas when we all contribute to the Christmas tree in the dining room. By doing this we help other people to enjoy Christmas. People might remark, "It's the Christmas spirit", but it might well be called the "Thanksgiving spirit."

Thanksgiving in the good old days is remembered for its bountiful dinners, the big turkey, and the cranberry sauce. We still have those big dinners, but are we sincerely as appreciative and thankful as they used to be? Let's get the Thanksgiving spirit!

LITTLE BEGINNINGS

At no point do we betray our human modes of thought more quickly than at the point of starting some new enterprise. We want a big beginning and immediate success. But God evidently likes little beginnings. There was the mustard seed of Jesus' parable, the smallest of all seeds. Its commencement was hidden in the ground. Growth was inconspicuous and slow. Only after some time did it become an enormous shrub or tree. Abram, when first told of a posterity as numerous as the shining stars and the myriad sands, probably assumed that he would have a large family. He would leave many stalwart sons. But there was only one son of promise and he did not come until 25 years after the promise was first given. Not even in the next generation was there a profilic reproduction. Isaac had twin boys, Esau and Jacob. After Jacob came the great increase.

So it is in Christian work. We will be great soul-winners. We will have tremendous revivals. We will develop mammoth Sunday schools. We will establish a record number of outposts. Thus we dream. But usually God is concerned that we become soul-winners by doing a good job with one. He promises to give life for death when a Christian takes one backslider into his prayers for revival. He blesses when we got down-to-earth enough to pick up one family on the way to Sunday school. He smiles with favor upon a single outpost where years of prayers, tears and hard work result in a sturdy little chapel or church. A good prayer for most of us is: "O Lord God, help me to be satisfied with little beginnings, for Jesus' sake. Amen." —The Southern Presbyterian Journal.

MAN AND THE CHURCH

The layman, too many times, does not stop to consider his importance to the church, the pastor and the community—in an altogether different category than the church—because the very heart and soul of the community is based upon the conditions existing within the church.

A sound, progressive church, with an energetic pastor, is the backbone of any community.

And a sound Christian layman is a part of the backbone of the church.

The two are inseparable and important cogs in the life of man, his home, his town and his church.

Too many men are interested in their lodge and club affairs. They come first; their church second and third, or perhaps somewhere else down the line. They take their lodges and clubs religiously, but not their church.

Each man has a certain amount of influence with other men. As a layman of God, this influence could be applied to good use for the church. How many men have actually talked to other men about the church, inviting them to attend, or making an effort to have them become interested in church affairs? The percentage of this type of man is far too low.

Interest in men who are lost on the wayside may mean the saving of another soul. Each layman has within his power this opportunity. Too often he neglects such opportunities with the thought in mind that it is the pastor's job, and not his, to try to redeem a wayward person.

Jesus' Great Commission was for man to help man, and where necessary to attempt to save others for His Father's Kingdom.

The pastor—every pastor—needs the help of good Christian men to assist him in carrying on the work of God. It is part of the layman's responsibility to give this assistance when called upon.

There are many departments of the church that need men in them. Sunday schools and Baptist Training Unions often call out for assistance. Their calls echo back on them, unanswered. Excuses are too easy to make. But how are these excuses received before the Father on His Throne

A pastor receives an unlimited amount of inspiration from the men in his congregation. The more willing servants he can muster together, the greater his inspiration, the greater the effect of his work for the church. As the work of the church grows it radiates out into the community with farreaching effects.

The church needs the layman's attention, his interest and his tithe. No church can prosper without the layman, the man who sometimes mistakenly thinks he is just a small fellow and could do little good for his church.

But he is an important part in the operations of the church, which goes to make better men, better homes and better communities.

He is the salt of the earth.

—By Mark Pace, Editor, Dalton News and The Citizen.

For sometime the Danish airlines had given their passengers sticks of chewing gum labeled, "To prevent unpleasant pressure in your ears during starting and landing."

It just had to happen: A lady passenger plaintively appealed to the Stewardess, "Help me get this stuff out of my ears. It doesn't help, anyway."

"I'm sorry madam," said the attendant at the movie, "but you can't take that dog into the theater."

"How absurd," protested the women. "What harm can pictures do a little dog like this."

WHAT I OWE TO MY PASTOR

I owe him respect as the ambassador of God, sent to teach me a better way of living than the selfish sordid existence I might be guilty of, but for his guidance.

I owe his trust, that he may be free to serve the church unhampered by criticism and fault-finding.

I owe my pastor the protection of kindly silence by refraining from repeating, in his presence, the slander of unkind gossip that would worry him and prevent him from doing his best.

I owe him prayer, that God may make his service a blessing to everyone with whom he comes in contact.

I owe him enough of my time to help him in his work, wherever he may need me.

I owe him encouragement, when vexations and annoyances make his work difficult.

I owe my pastor consideration, not to interrupt and hinder his work by financial worry.

I owe my pastor attention when I go to church, that he may not be annoyed by seeing my careless inattention.

Recently we received two new girls and had to send two of our older girls to Howard cottage. The two new ones names are Betty Ruth Anderson, and Judy Bolton, both of the third grade. We surely hope that Peggy Jean Sellers and Sally Ruth Carbett will be happy at their new cottage.

Seven of our little girls are going to Mooresville to give a short program. Also one of the big sisters is going to make a talk. They are also going to eat dinner with the ladies. "Hummm," sure would like to be in their shoes!

Usually in our news we try to always say something about our teacher, Miss Blakney. The other day, Miss Blakney came walking in with a guilty grin on her face. We had an idea that she was thinking up something to do. We weren't far from wrong either! She comes in bringing all twenty-five of us a tulip bulb apiece, to plant in our garden. We really think she did it so we wouldn't pull up her own bulbs.

Now for a little bit of humor on the part of one of the little girls. Our matron asked Donnie where was her thinking cap? Little Donnie looked up at her with an innocent grin, and said, "Well, you know, I think I forgot where I put the thing." Of course, some of us often wonder where we leave ours too.

Barbara Porter, the little girl who broke her leg, has finally returned to our happy home. We certainly are glad to get her back, after a long stay at the Infirmary.

We all hope that you nice people will have a wonderful Thanksgiving. We sign off now with best wishes.

Here we come again 20 strong from the Baby Cottage.

We have had several new comers to our house to stay with us awhile since we last wrote you. We are so glad to have all these little ones to come to the Baby Cottage in time for Christmas as we have such a jolly good time.

Old Santa never forgets the Baby Cottage. I wish you all could be here on Christmas morning and see what a big time we have.

We get up at 6:00 o'clock to see what Santa Claus has brought us. We have already written our Christmas letters so we are expecting him to come this time loaded down for we have asked for lots of things and we most always get what we ask for.

Well, it is getting too cold for us to play outside so we will have to look for something to do indoors.

We go to Kindergarten every morning. Next year lots of us will go out to school.

We hope you all have a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

We will stop here for this time with lots of love.

— The Babies.

JENNIE GILMER

Remember us? We're still around even if you haven't heard from us in such a long while.

We have had a hard football schedule this month. During the season we have won one game and tied one. The last one was the end of our little games.

Some of us have recently joined the Scouts. Most of us haven't passed the Tenderfoot yet, but we hope to pass by December 6, in order to go to the Court of Honor.

We are looking forward already to Christmas and have written our Santa Claus letters.

We went to the big parade in Charlotte the other day and we really did enjoy it. It was about two miles long and lasted about two hours. Thank you Daddy Johnston for letting us go.

We will write you again next month so good-bye for now.

SYNOD COTTAGE

Hello, Folks,

It has been quite some time since you have heard any news from us wigglers.

We have two new members now. They are Melvin Sanders and John Bolton. We are really glad to have these new brothers.

Our good friend from Charlotte, Dr. D. H. Nesbit, came to see us and brought us each a lollipop. We got nice and sticky but we enjoyed them. (Our big girls didn't.)

Santa Claus is quite a popular figure around our house these days. We have been writing our Santa Claus letters in school this week.

We were very glad to hear that Rev. A. B. McClure was going to be our new superintendent. He has been one of our favorites for a long time.

Just any day if you pass by, you would see us outside raking leaves. We get a nickle a sack but just raking them is fun by itself.

One of our boys went to Morganton to sing for the Ladies of the Church. He also said the 100th Psalm.

You'll be hearing from us next month.

WOMAN'S BUILDING

Hi There,

Sorry you didn't hear from us last month, but you'll be hearing plenty from us this time.

We owe part of this article to our faithful "Daddy" Johnston. We have enjoyed every minute of our time here with him. We would like to thank him from the bottom of our hearts for all he has done for us, and hope he will be able to come back to see us often. We are so sorry he has decided to leave. Here's hoping our hearts will grow towards Mr. McClure as it has towards him.

We wish to thank Mrs. Thompson and the auxiliary from Norwood for the lovely shrubs they sent us. We can visualize what a beautiful background they are going to make for our garden that we have been so happy to work in. We would like to thank Miss Zeta Davidson too for the beautiful pitcher she sent us. The holidays will be here soon and we hope to be using it a lot at that time. Also we would like to thank Mr. Archie Cannon for the nice radio he sent us. Our leisure time is usually spent listening to it.

The Dentist got here too late. becausewe have lost some teeth trying to crack pecans. We really have an awfully lot this year. Betsy Paige and Jackie Kuykendall are our "star" eaters. They really do pile 'em in!

We would like also to tell the Glee Club members what an enjoyable time we had at the Halloween Carnival they gave. One of the many entertainments for the evening was a scavenger hunt. The winners were Marie Andrews and Ethel Brotherton. Give 'em a hand!

We would like to congratulate the boys on the fine football they have been playing. Keep the good work up, we still have the most important game ahead. Hit 'em hard!

Everyone seems to have some aching or soreness lately. Wonder why? Basketball has started, of course!

We enjoyed the movie, "Christopher Columbus" since we did not have to rob our piggy banks, to pay our own way.

Our High School gave a radio program on the subject "Citizenship," November 8th. We are sure everyone enjoyed it.

It's about time to start writing our Chritmas letters. You know the old saying, "You'd better be good!"

Well folks. this calls for a closing. We hate to hold you in suspense, but wait until next month for the Woman's Building. news.

Until next month,
Betsy Paige & Blondie Kuykendall

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hi Folks,

Here we are again with the news of our cottage.

We had our Monthly birthday table November 10th. Only two of our girls went. They are: Marie McNeill and Nancy Ferrell.

We are writing our Santa Clause letters now. We hope Santa will be as good to us as he was last year.

One of our dearest friends Mr. Grier took us to a show. He took two groups. The first group was made up of our smallest girls. They went to see "Mr. Frog and Icky Bod." The second group was made up of our largest girls. They went to see "Everybody Does it."

Last week Peggy Jean Sellers and Sally Corbitt moved to our cottage from Annie Louise. We are glad to have them and hope they like being with us.

Look for us next month.

Your friends,
The Bean Stringers

INFIRMARY NEWS

Hello Friends,

Here we are again, the five little nurses. Football season is almost over, the big game of the season is Friday with Statesville. Basketball has begun for four of us.

Our matron, Mrs. Finley, known to all of us as (Ma), has been on a short visit to Greenville, S. C. (We missed you "Ma'). Miss Annie had an unsuccessful week-end at Charlotte, she didn't even bring us a piece of bubble gum. (Boo hoo!)

We can't get by without the gossip in our column. "Hold your ears!" Wonder why "Paul" makes it a point to get hurt in every game, it must be to see "Elsie". Elmina certainly has been lively lately, some tall boy seems to be turning her heart over. Stony Point boys see something of special Interest here at the Infirmary, "Louise are you sure you're not involved?" Two college boys seem to be having a little competition now days. We wonder if there will be "words" between them Thanksgiving. Hey Jeanne who's gonn'a win?

Well folks, our brains are getting dry, see you next month.

—Your friends,
Shirley Porter
Jeanne, Elmina,
Elsie and Louise.

RUMPLE HALL

Well!

Here we are again, bringing the news from the Waitresses.

Since school has started we have been having a wonderful time. We have been to several movies and football games.

The leaves on the Campus are all beautiful colors. We have been raking them up to make the Campus pretty for Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Some of our girls went to Mooresville to circle six to give a Thanksgiving program, they sent a treat of candy and cookies to the other girls.

The Howard, Jenny Gilmer, and about fourteen Rumple Hall girls went to Charlotte Wednesday, sixteenth, to see the Christmas parade. We left about 3:30 and didn't get back until about 9:30, the Parade was two hours long. We had a good time and enjoyed it very much.

Our last football game was with Statesville, November eighteenth. It was the most exciting game of the season the score was 0-0.

We are now having visitors most everyday and hope to continue having them until Christmas.

We are going to have the football banquet December second, we are expecting about 175 people.

See you again next month,
—Shirley Ann Cannon

leaders familiarizing themselves with its contents and implications —and then doing something about it in our Presbytery and local Churches.

Officers for the Men of the Presbytery were elected and installed to take office next April first. These were: President, Mr. S. P. Jones of the First Church, Statesville; Vice-President, Mr. Kerr Craig Ramsay, of the First Church, Salisbury; Secretary, Mr. Ralph Spencer, Little Joe's Church, Barium Springs. The service of installation for the new officers was conducted by Rev. Oren Moore of the McKinnon Church in Concord.

beauty of the day so that we were ready to enjoy anything, but the entertainment that we received was ahead of anything that we had ever experienced. Mr. and Mrs. Holmes took us to the Alumni luncheon.

Now, that Alumni luncheon is something that has to be described to be believed. Here at Barium we pride ourselves on our ability to feed a lot of folks promptly and satisfactorily. We have served 600 people at a barbecue in twenty minutes, but that does not touch the way they did it at Clemson. They had eight tables and were serving from both sides of each table, which made sixteen lines and our estimate of the crowd was that they served about 3,000 people just as fast as they could crowd in a great big double door, and nowhere along the line was there any evidence of crowding or standing on first one foot and then the other, but everything moved along smoothly. The food was good and plentiful. The ham that was served must have been special. We ate our lunch in the indoor basketball court and heard a few words from the Governor, the college president, etc., and then we went to the ball game.

We sat in the president's box, and it seemed to me that every person in it was a person of distinction, so much so that the Governor and his wife did not even create a ripple when they came in. There were some old-time football players and many present-day football enthusiasts. I happened to be sitting next to Dave Clark during the first half, and we decided a great many important football matters to our satisfaction if not to anybody else's. We agreed on our disapproval of the platoon system, and were pretty well agreed on the all-time-all-North Carolina football selections.

The Clemson stadium is just a little smaller than Kenan stadium. They have cleared off the hills at the end and at one side. There was plenty of parking space for the 20,000 spectators who came. The band, the majorettes, and the drilling of the cadets was up to the highest standard which Clemson usually maintains. The weather was perfect, so much so that those who sat in the sun removed their coats; those who sat in the shade were not uncomfortable without their overcoats, and to cap it all, the two teams put on a display of football to beat all football games. The final score was 40-27, and you can very well forget which team won - - it happened to be Boston. Every kind of a play seemed to be put on especially for our entertainment. There were intercepted passes for touchdowns; there were hidden ball plays for touchdowns; there were pass plays resulting in touchdowns. There was one case where a player was bottled up, reversed his field twice, losing 20 yards before he really started toward the goal and then ran 40 yards for a touchdown. High School stuff you might say, anyhow it left everybody breathless and exhausted when the game was over.

We stayed at Clemson long enough to see many old friends and to meet many new friends, leaving the delightful home of Mr. and Mrs. Holmes after lunch on Sunday, and arriving home before suppertime.

We took lunch on Sunday with the 2500 cadets or students, depending on wheter they are in uniform or not, and the meal we ate something special - country style steak - so tender that you could cut it with your fork and enough to get a second and third refill if you wanted it, and with the gravy like you dream about it is a wonder I did not go to sleep on the way home.

Mrs. Holmes' name was Mrs. Pennell when she was at Barium and there are many on our staff and in our neighborhood who still remember her. She is still the lovable, energetic little woman that she was when she belonged to us here. She says that she has never been completely weaned from Barium; although she is now a member of the Episcopal Church with her husband, she is still Presbyterian whenever she thinks of Barium Springs.

And so end the round of Home-Comings Days. In the three college Home-Comings Days the visiting teams refused to be beaten. Maybe that is all right too. Maybe Davidson, Carolina and Clemson will get satisfaction next year in mopping up the host teams when they play at somebody else's Home-Coming. As for Barium Springs she usually is Home-Coming entertainment for several high schools during the fall. We do love to upset their plans and to win those games. So it all evens up. So many good things happen in the Fall that it makes one wonder how anyone can find fault with this old world at that time. It makes us understand how fitting it is that the latter part of November should be Thanksgiving Day all over the world. It is good just to be alive, to have eyes to see, ears to hear, and hearts to throb with it all.

The 100-pound team sometimes played under the 100 pound limit, and sometimes under 110. There were a few boys who played with the latter weight limit who were too heavy for the 100. Here is the record:

Barium 13, Mount Airy 14.
Barium 34, Mooresvilles Recreation Center 0.
Barium 6, Mount Airy 2.
Barium 18, Mooresville Recreation Center 14.

The 85-pound team:

Barium 13, Mount Airy 0.
Barium 0, Mount Airy 0.

It looks like the 85-pounders had a very short season, but they were the substitutes for the 100-pound team and most of the players saw a lot of action.

The standing of the South Piedmont Conference also follows - - It shows how Barium's varsity stacks up with the other teams which they played this season:
